Reference: October Quarterly Report (7/20/00 - 9/30/00)

Dear Mr. Whyrick:

In response to your letter referring to the October Quarterly Report (7/20/00 - 9/30/00) we offer the following information:

- Schedule A in reference to the over the limit contributions from Terrence Dunn and James Brown, proper compliance was not made. To remedy this error, Friends of Roy Blunt has issued reimbursement checks to the individual for the amount over the $1,000 per election limit. Copies of these checks are enclosed and will show as a refund on the June 30, 2001 Mid-Year Report.

An amended report of the 2nd Quarter Report (4/1/00 - 6/30/00) should have been made previously, in compliance with the General American Associates Federal PAC a redesignation of the contribution that we received on May 23, 2000 should be as follows: $500 to Primary 2000 and $500 to General 2000. This has been corrected and is enclosed.

In an internal self audit, two errors also on the 2nd Quarter Report (4/1/00 - 6/30/00) were discovered. The amount entry for the Chicago Board Options Exchange, on May 22, 2000 was entered incorrectly. It has been corrected.

Also an unitemized contribution of $25.00 made by credit card was also added.

If you have any further questions, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Gordon Elliott, C.P.A.
Treasurer
